BAKE & spread a little love

“Who knows whether Easter will be a family affair this year, but we’ve designed these treats so you can give some away to neighbours. There’s a hot cross theme, including amazing cheesy buns (and even gin – not strictly baking but it will be gratefully received all the same). Whatever you make, be sure to keep enough back to indulge yourself. It is a four-day weekend, after all.” SOPHIE AUSTEN-SMITH, DEPUTY FOOD EDITOR
